

Honeylight Mentoring & Coaching ©

Our coaching and Mentoring experts are called on to Mentor and Coach Individuals or groups both on a business basis and for leadership.

Having a business coach is not a luxury, it is a must have. Our Honeylight Business Coaches will focus on your future needs and that of your career and organisation.

Our goal is to help you reach yours.

We do this with our unique Tacit Knowledge techniques and methodologies.

Tacit knowledge (as opposed to formal or explicit knowledge) has been described as “know-how” - as opposed to “know-what” (facts), “know-why” (science), or “know-who” (networking), and is knowledge that is difficult to transfer to another person by means of writing it down or verbalising it. It can only be transmitted via effective training or gained through personal experience.

Effective transfer of tacit knowledge generally requires extensive personal contact and trust. While tacit knowledge appears to be simple, it has far reaching consequences both on effectiveness and value add basis.

We transfer to you our tacit knowledge to bring out an individual's hidden capabilities.

Mentoring and Coaching Format

Mentoring Sessions can be provided in a series of either 2 x 3 hour sessions or as 2 x 4 hour sessions or any combination of these that suit the client

These are often provided on site or adjacent to one's workplace, where work materials and resources are handy if needed.

They can alternatively be offered as a small group session of up to 3 people with similar coaching needs or who work together as a small team.

Group sessions of up to 3 people are eligible for 10% reductions based on a group discount rate.
